

The History of Writing

When: Saturday, November 23, 2013
10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Where: inlingua Doral Center
9763 NW 41st Street
Doral, Florida 33178

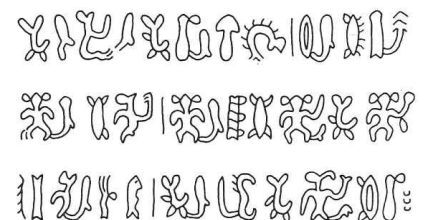

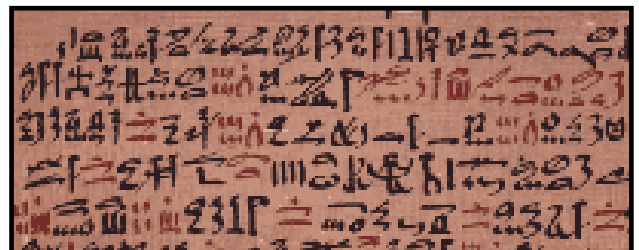

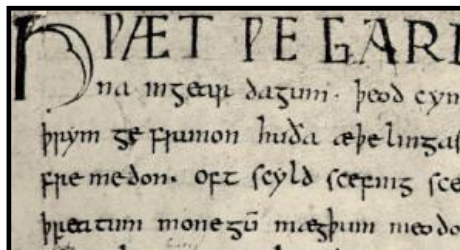

This workshop will be simulcast live to the inlingua Aventura, Boca Raton, Brickell, Fort Lauderdale, Orlando, Tampa and Weston Centers. You may attend this workshop virtually in any of these locations, in addition to the Doral Center.

Who: All inlingua instructors (all languages) and staff.

What: A five-hour seminar and discussion on the origin, development, history and use of writing and literacy throughout the world. Topics to be addressed include when, where, why and how writing first developed; the different types of writing systems that have been used throughout history; the gradual movement toward alphabetic writing; and literacy in the ancient and modern world.

Trainer: Richard E. McDorman, Director of Programs and Professional Development

The writing systems shown below are just a few of those that will be discussed during this seminar. To find out what languages they represent, when and where they have been used, and the history of their development, please attend this seminar.

Please confirm your attendance with Assistant Director Sandra Manso at smanso@inlingua-if.com. Thank you.
